What if a Community Became Engaged?

Background on Orton Family Foundation
We may be doing this...

and we need to be doing this.

Heart & Soul principles and 4 phases

1. Lay The Groundwork
2. Explore Your Community
3. Make Decisions
4. Take Action

INVOLVE EVERYONE  FOCUS ON WHAT MATTERS  PLAY THE LONG GAME
Siloes working, sometimes on similar goals, but unaware of efforts/mission of others

Enduring vibrant communities require government, community, NGO’s working together

Knowing your Community’s Heart & Soul (your common cause)
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>1. Basic Services</th>
<th>6. Aesthetics</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2. Local Economy</td>
<td>7. Social Offerings</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Safety</td>
<td>8. Open/Welcome</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Leadership/Elected</td>
<td>9. Civic Involvement</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Education Systems</td>
<td>10. Social Capital</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Community Heart & Soul

Guided by What Matters Most

Rick Muriby – rmuriby@cityofgolden.net
Shane Hale – shale@cityofcortez.com
Alece Montez – amontez@orton.org

helpdesk@orton.org